Featured Baldridge Award Recipient

Southcentral Foundation (SCF) provides health care and related services to about 65,000 Alaska Native and American Indian people. It operates the Nuka System of Care, a customer-driven, relationship-based health care system. SCF collaborates with Alaska Native Tribal Health Consortium to ensure a seamless continuum of care by providing consultation and specialty services at the Alaska Native Medical Center. SCF uses a wide range of delivery mechanisms to provide health care service offerings, including ambulatory office visits, home visits, learning circles, email and telephone visits, health information and education, outpatient services, behavioral services, and day and residential treatment. With 33 facilities in and around Anchorage, SCF also provides care to 55 remote village sites, many of which are accessible only by plane. It has 2,200 employees.

Baldridge-Based Award Programs Serving Alaska

The Alliance for Performance Excellence is a nonprofit national network of Baldridge-based organizations with a mission to grow performance excellence in support of a thriving Baldridge community. Alliance members include Baldridge-based programs that use the Baldridge Excellence Framework (which includes the Criteria for Performance Excellence) to serve organizations from all sectors in their region, state, or a specific industry. These programs annually evaluate and recognize over 1,000 organizations and serve as the feeder system for the national Baldridge Award.

Performance Excellence Northwest, an Alliance for Performance Excellence member, is a regional program affiliated with the national Baldridge Performance Excellence Program (BPEP). Volunteers serve on the board of directors, panel of judges, board of examiners, as well as serving as mentors, among other roles. The 200+ volunteers partner with health care organizations, manufacturers, government agencies, schools, small and large businesses, and nonprofits to help them improve their overall performance using BPEP's renowned Baldrige Excellence Framework (which includes the Criteria for Performance Excellence) and leading tools for continuous improvement.

The AHCA/NCAL National Quality Award Program, an Alliance for Performance Excellence member, provides a pathway toward performance excellence for providers of long-term and post-acute care services. The program is based on the core values and criteria of the Baldrige Performance Excellence Program.

The Baldrige Performance Excellence Program

Created with Congressional authorization in 1987, the Baldrige Program helps organizations improve and succeed in the global marketplace. It is the only public-private partnership and Presidential award program dedicated to improving U.S. organizations. In collaboration with the Baldrige community, the Baldrige Program offers a systems approach to organizational excellence, award-winning leadership development, self-assessment tools, organizational assessments by trained experts, workshops on how to improve, and events that showcase best management practices.
